Major Group 85 – Product Fabricating, Assembling and Repairing Occupations

Minor Group 851 – Fabricating and Assembling Occupations, Metal Products, N.E.C.

This minor group includes occupations, not elsewhere classified, concerned with fabricating and assembling a wide variety of products, primarily made of metal, and mechanical equipment designed for domestic, commercial, industrial, construction, agricultural or other uses. Activities include: fabricating and assembling motor vehicles; aircraft; railway rolling stock; engines and related equipment; industrial, farm and construction machinery; business and commercial machines; precision instruments; armament equipment; and other related products. Marine craft fabricating, assembling and repairing occupations are classified in minor group 859.

Minor Group 853 – Fabricating, Assembling, Installing and Repairing Occupations: Electrical, Electronic and Related Equipment

This minor group includes occupations concerned with fabricating, assembling, installing and repairing such electrical and electronic equipment as motors, generators and batteries, domestic appliances, communications equipment, data-processing equipment, and radio and television receivers; and such electrical and electronic components and parts as coils, transformers, light bulbs, cathode-ray and electron tubes, capacitors, resistors and printed circuitry. Occupations concerned with repairing office equipment, such as bookkeeping machines and typewriters, are classified in minor group 858–Business and commercial machine mechanics and repairmen. Occupations concerned with installing and repairing precision instruments, such as scientific, engineering, optical and medical instruments and apparatus, are classified in minor group 858–Precision instrument mechanics and repairmen. Occupations concerned with fabricating and assembling other equipment primarily of a mechanical nature, but which may be electrically or electronically activated, are classified in their appropriate minor groups within major group 85–Product fabricating, assembling and repairing occupations.
